Holiday gift ideas are tough. If you're anything like me, you're looking for something practical that will get use, but also be loved! It's a lot of pressure to put on a gift-wrapped box. But, if you're in need of a creative gift idea, reach for an AncestryDNA kit, because they're at their lowest price ever just in time for Black Friday and Cyber Monday shopping.The original kit is usually $99, which I would say is mid-tier pricing for a Christmas gift. But, right now, you can get the kit for just $29. That's right, less than $30! During the AncestryDNA Black Friday and Cyber Monday sale, the kits are the lowest price they've ever been. You can also reach for the AncestryDNA kit and the All-Access membership for just $39, which is 80% off the original price!Here's everything you need to know to shop AncestryDNA this holiday season:AncestryDNA offers a DNA testing kit, as well as paid memberships to help you unlock insights and information like U.S. records, military records and news articles. Here's how much each kit costs and what it includes:AncestryDNA kit: This includes one DNA kit and is the no-frills, starter option for someone just dipping their toes into their past. It allows you to run your DNA and provides insights about your family's origins, plus you can connect with DNA matches. TheAncestryDNA kit is currently $29during their sitewide sale, which is $70 off from the original price of $99.AncestryDNA kit + World Explorer Membership:You get the benefits of the DNA kit, plus the added membership. The membership gives you access to billions of records in the U.S.; it explains how 75+ traits influence your characteristics and can even track traits by parent.The kit and added membership is just $30right now, originally $100.AncestryDNA kit + All Access Membership: This is the top tier plan, which gives you all the benefits of the DNA kit and the World Explorer Membership, plus access to news articles and photos and military records. Additionally, you can have up to four accounts to share your information with family. During AncestryDNA's sitewide sale,this membership is $39, or 80% off the original price of $199.Here's a breakdown of the membership tiers offered by AncestryDNA:U.S. Discovery - With this membership, you can access all U.S. records on Ancestry.World Explorer - With this membership, you can access all U.S. and international records on Ancestry.All Access - With this membership, you can access all records on Ancestry, Fold3 for military records, and Newspapers.com, plus you share the membership with up to four accounts.You can purchase the kit by itself, but having a membership unlocks family records, which can include military records, as well as other benefits like building a family tree. Right now, semi-annual and annual memberships are 50% off at AncestryDNA. Here are a couple benefits of including an AncestryDNA membership with your testing kit:Access to historical records:Browse billions of records to find information about your ancestors.Family tree builder:Use AncestryDNAs intuitive tools to construct a detailed family tree, complete with photos, documents and stories.Hints and suggestions:Receive automated hints about possible matches and connections to help you further your research.DNA insights:Integrate your DNA results with your family tree for a more comprehensive understanding of your heritage.Military records: With the All Access membership, you can discover millions of military records from a premiere collection of stories, photos, and documents on Fold3.When using an AncestryDNA kit, the process is fairly simple and user-friendly. Here's a step-by-step guide and estimated timeline:Order your kit:Purchase your AncestryDNA kitonline and have it delivered to your doorstep in just a matter of days.Collect your sample:Follow the instructions to provide a saliva sample.
